

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

YONKERS.

The first concert of the third season of the Yonkers Choral Society was given last evening in Music Hall before a large and appreciative audience. Frederick R. Burton, who has been its musical director since its organization and who has brought it to its present standing, conducted. In place of the usual solo features, there were several numbers contributed by the Ladies' Orchestral Club of New York City. Mrs. Edgar S. Kelley was the accompanist.

The Republican General Committee has organized for 1899 by the election of the following officers: James M. Hunt, president; A. N. Garthwaite, vice-president; J. C. Fleischman, secretary; J. S. Clark, assistant secretary; Stephen H. Thayer, treasurer; Frederick Bell, sergeant-at-arms.

SING SING.

At the annual election of the First National Bank of this place Henry C. Nelson, Ralph Brandreth, Frank Brandreth, Stephen M. Isaac, T. C. Townsend Young, John Hoag and Henry C. Washburn were chosen directors, and Henry C. Washburn, president; Ralph Brandreth, vice-president, and Rodney S. Lockwood, cashier. At the last report of the bank the resources placed at $200,000, capital $100,000, surplus fund, $20,000, individual deposits subject to check, $24,894.50.

About one thousand of the prisoners in the State Prison yesterday afternoon. The Rev. Dr. H. M. Field, the evangelist, is visiting in Sing Sing and gave a sermon. He told of his travels in many lands and was much interested in the prisoners. He was much applauded by the convicts. There was also an address by the Rev. J. A. McWilliams, of the Sing Sing Presbyterian church. Miss Maggia Lowenheup and David H. Benedict, of the Presbyterian church choir, sang.

Mrs. Martha W. Place, who is in the State Prison here under sentence of death for killing her step-daughter in Brooklyn, does not seem to be very much distressed by her conviction, and that her only hope of escaping the electric chair will not tell her until the order for her execution comes from Albany. The Warden says it will be a disgraceful duty for him to send the woman to the chair. He says the execution of a man is bad enough, but he has to have to execute a woman. Mrs. Place, if her sentence is not commuted by the Governor, will be the first woman to die by electricity under sentence of death in this State.

MOUNT VERNON.

Mrs. Emily McNaule, fifty years old, widow of Walter C. McNaule, died yesterday. Mrs. McNaule was born in New York City, and had lived in Mount Vernon twenty-two years. She was one of the founders of the local Women's Christian Temperance Union, and was many years secretary of the same. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Westchester County. The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. Paul's Cemetery, East Chester. The Rev. Mr. Holmes, a former rector of Trinity Church, will officiate.

NEW-ROCHELLE.

The committee in charge of the new night school is well pleased with the progress of its efforts. Although only a few pupils were expected at the first meeting, more than one hundred and seventy have attended in the first week. The committee will be obliged to ask the Board of Education for additional rooms and teachers. The pupils are of all ages, from twelve to forty years. The first lecture of this season will be given to-night in the Trinity Episcopal Church, by the Rev. Mr. Holmes, Editor of "Harpers Weekly," who is a resident of Pelham Road. Mr. Nelson will talk on "Some American Tendencies."

PEEKSKILL.

Assemblyman James Kellogg Apgar is ill at his home in Nelson-ave., with the grip. He has been in bed since Sunday, and has been threatened with pneumonia. Assemblyman Apgar was bitterly disappointed in not being able to be in the Republican caucus in Albany last night to secure the nomination of Charles M. Dewey for United States Senator. Mr. Dewey being a Peekskill man by birth, the complaint was made by him, and Assemblyman Apgar was scheduled to make the seconding speech.

How do you know those baking powders are made from alum?

Their lower price, their unfamiliar names generally betray them.

But it is not necessary for you to know. You know that Royal does not contain alum, that it makes the best food, that it is pure and healthful. This knowledge is sufficient to enable you to protect yourself and your family from alum baking powders and the evil results which are certain to follow their use.
